1 item in the desert Isaiah 40: 3 refers to the great Giovanni Battister. Copyright on Print also found in: Wikipedia. This occupies our attention in this lesson. Related lessons ... Gabriele says that John was "in the spirit and in the power of Elijah" (Luca 1: 11-19). All we have to do is preach with firmness the Gospel, and the power will be in our preaching because it is in the word of Christ who preach. We looked at the prophecy referring to John the Baptist as "a voice that he calls into the desert" (Isaiah 40: 3). People were confused as much as people are today. This is another reference to Malachi $\hat{A} \hat{e} \hat{a} \hat{e} \hat{a}$ The final words, in fact, of Malachi and the Old Testament (Matthew 11:14, Malachi 4: 5-6). They were just a voice in the desert.This comes from a description of Giovanni Battista in the Bible. The same interpretation is given by the writers of the other evangelical stories (Mark 1: 2-4, Luca 3: 2-6, John 1: 19-23). This is clarified by Matteo who plays this verse for us (Matthew 3: 1-3). John: The Gospel according to John was written by Giovanni Apostolo, not to be confused with John the Baptist on which the Apostle is writing. However, didn't you read what Jesus said? Much has changed since then. Also: voice, wildernessfarlex dictionary of idioms. Our task preparing the world at the second coming of Christ (Matthew 28: 18-20). Jesus he played this step for us, and applied him to John the Baptist (Matthew 11: 1-15). We don't compare ourselves in any spirit of arrogance, but with the subjective understanding that Jesus gives us when he says: "I really tell you, among the born of women a larger one of Giovanni Battista, but the one who is less in Kingdom of the sky is bigger than him " eralopopmi'nu eralopopmi'nu emirpse ehc onuclauQ).11:11 or idea. It was the "calling voice in the desert." He was a lonely voice in the desert trying to expose the vast corruption within the organization. It is a poem about the time and coming of Christ (Isaiah 40:1-11), followed by an exhortation to recognize Him as the likeness and true image of Almighty God (Isaiah 40:12-31, Colossians 1:15, Hebrews 1:3). WORDS OF ISALAH: Luke's description of the document as "the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah" (Luke 3:2-6) clearly shows that the book, including chapter 40, was written by Isaiah, not by anyone else. John himself was clear about this (John 1:15,19-23,29-36). However, it is clear that in his time there was also a religious or spiritual desert. We don't have to worry if God has given us that power, because it is in the gospel we preach (Romans 1:16). Now we'll connect it to another prophecy about John. He prepared the people for the first coming of Christ. © 2022 Farlex, Inc. All rights reserved. All who preach the gospel of Christ are voices crying out in the wilderness, preaching the word, "in season and not season" (2 Timothy 4:2). John preached with great spirit and power, for all that was against him. 3 The preaching of John the Baptist led many sinners to righteousness and made "a people prepared for the Lord" (Luke 1:16-17). 2 John is a model for today The story of John the Baptist is of great encouragement to us. The question of whether John was Elijah or not is (literally) solved by John the Baptist himself. We note in John's Gospel that John the Baptist himself testifies to be the "crying voice in the wilderness" of which Isaiah speaks. 1 The Messenger of Malachi, the Elijah to come Malachi, the last book of the Old Testament, also prophesies a messenger of the Lord (Malachi 3:1-3).
